NO ROOM FOR RACISM

Victoria is home to people from cultures and communities across the world, alongside the oldest continuing cultures on Earth – Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. Our diversity is our greatest strength and it should be protected, celebrated and reflected in our politics.

Yet too often politicians reach for the same tired playbook: create fear, blame, and turn people's differences into political weapons.

This Victorian election, we are coming together across First Nations, migrant, multicultural and broader communities to say clearly: there is No Room for Racism.
